We hope that your teen will profit both academically and socially from Shanan Classical Tutorials. To help the Tutorials run smoothly, and for the student to benefit from these classes, we ask that you do the following:

Make sure your teen:

1. Is respectful toward the tutor and fellow students.
2. Abides by church rules, respects the church property, and ATTENDS STUDY HALL in the designated area when on campus and not in class.
3. Dresses according to the dress code: blouses, knit shirts, button-down shirts (long enough that they could be tucked in), pants, modest shorts, skirts. No shirts with vulgar or offensive sayings (Biblical standards). Modest, neat, and tasteful appearance please.
4. Is willing to do his or her best to fulfill the assignments given by the tutor, prepare for class, and participate in class discussions.
5. Checks email account frequently for those tutors who stay in contact via email
6. Contacts the tutor if he or she is absent to find out what assignments were missed.
7. Understands that the Tutorial program is just a supplemental learning experience to enhance the educational program provided at each home school.
8. Arrives on time for classes. (If you drive them, make sure you do not make them late.)

As a parent you are responsible:

1. To evaluate the class material for a worldview perspective from which the tutor may present.
2. To make payment for classes on time; pay for all books and supplies requested by the tutor.
3. To pay the appropriate registration fee which includes a donation to the church.
4. To support the efforts of the tutor to provide instruction to your student.
5. To drop off and pick up your non-driving student on time.
6. To remember you are the primary teacher for your student. The courses offered through the Tutorials are supplemental only to your home school program.

**If at any time your teen is continually disobedient, disrespectful or fails to do the assignments required, and after a phone conference with the parents and a review of the situation, the board feels it is not beneficial for your teen to remain in the program, the Shanan Classical Board reserves the right to ask you to discontinue the Tutorials, without refund.****
